

Accredited Aged Care Professional™ program

Registration form – Melbourne workshop 2024

Build your knowledge and skills for aged care advice. Aged Care Steps (ACS) is the leading business providing support aged care advice, with highly experienced facilitators who have had practical experience in aged care advice. Complete the program to become an Accredited Aged Care Professional™ (see conditions below).

What does the program involve?

The program involves three components to qualify for the Aged Care Steps (ACS) Accredited Aged Care Professional™:

1. Five pre-reading Essentials Modules – covering the basic knowledge required, across aged care accommodation options, home care, residential care and Centrelink assessments. Each module takes 1 -1.5 hours to complete. Assessment is via an online 20 multiple-choice question quiz.
2. Face-to-face workshop – a two-day interactive workshop aimed at building a deeper knowledge base and application of advice processes and strategies to enable attendees to build the skills and confidence to provide aged care advice by following a 9-step advice framework.
3. Final assessment – a case-study based assignment and a multiple-choice assessment testing application of knowledge and skills developed in the workshop. Each component is worth 50% of overall result and an overall pass mark of 70% is required. Attendees have two months after the workshop to complete (with access to our Toolkit calculators to help).

The program is supported with a workshop folder including slides and handouts for ongoing use when providing advice, fact sheets, additional short videos, as well as a special offer of two-months FREE access to calculators in our Aged Care Business Toolkit™.

Attendees will also be registered in our optional 10-week follow up email program to reinforce learning. An accreditation logo and certificate will be provided upon successful completion for use with marketing and promotional activities.

Who should attend?

This program is designed for financial planners, paraplanners, accountants and lawyers who wish to provide financial planning advice for clients accessing aged care services. But it also provides a deeper understanding of aged care for professionals working in other related fields. The Accreditation can only be awarded to attendees authorised under an Australian Financial Services Licence (AFSL).

What content is covered?

During the workshop you will learn:

- The Aged Care Steps' 9-step framework to guide you through a logical process for how to interact with clients and develop advice solutions
- The rules for calculating aged care fees (residential and home care)
- Understanding how the former home is assessed
- Strategies for funding aged care needs with consideration for cashflow and estate maximisation
- An understanding of the challenges faced by the aged care services sector
- Practical tips for navigating Centrelink & means-test assessments
- Case studies and strategies covering singles, couples, low-means, high-net wealth and financial hardship
- Alternatives to residential care, including the financial implications of retirement villages and land lease communities
- Navigating the home care system
- Compliance and best practice tips when advice is provided to an Enduring Power of Attorney
- Practical tips for how to kickstart your aged care advice business, including pricing, compliance, service offer and how to start client discussions.
